Dear Erik:

I wish that you would remember our morning conversation and little walk last Friday a week with as much pleasure as I do. Thanks again.

I told Greenson that you would be coming to California in March and that there is a possibility to lasso you into Los Angeles for a lecture to the Society, and maybe even one in addition for the School for Nursery Years. His answer was absolutely, definitely and by all means he must come. Whereupon I promised to ask you to send me a note about what the title of a lecture by yourself would be. I will be happy then to get in touch with Windy and arrange a program for you so that you do not have to be bothered with any of those details. Please allow yourself to be appreciated.

Nothing has happened while I was gone and nothing either since I have been back. Each has its good sides and its boring sides.

With my very best wishes and greetings to you and Joan,

Yours,

Dear Erik: Would you please fulfill my New Year's wish and answer my letter to the effect that you are willing and ready to come for one day to Los Angeles when you are up north in March and talk in behalf of the School for Nursery Years.
