The following is a report of the activities of the Los Angeles Institute for Psychoanalysis for the fiscal year June 1, 1965-May 31, 1966.

At the last Annual Meeting, June 10, 1965, the following were elected to serve as members of the Board of Trustees:

Non-analyst members: Mr. Walter Hilborn (1965-68), Mr. Marvin Freeman (1965-68), Mr. Louis Licht (1965-67), and Mr. John T. Pigott, Jr., (1965-68).

Non-training-analyst member: Seymour Pastron, M. D., for a term of three years.

The following officers were elected for a term of one year:

Mr. Walter Hilborn, President; Maimon Leavitt, M. D., Secretary; Seymour Pastron, M. D., Treasurer.

During the past year the Institute was sorry to lose the services of Dr. Ernst Lewy, due to his resignation from the Education Committee and the Board of Trustees.

We are indebted to him for his many years of devotion to psychoanalysis and the Los Angeles Institute for Psychoanalysis.

Dr. Lewy moved from New York to Los Angeles in 1945. Previously, he had been a training analyst at the Topeka Institute and, in 1941, President of the Topeka Psychoanalytic Society.

Since his arrival in Los Angeles he has been an influential part of the growth of the Institute and the Society and a leader in the formulation of the standards of our Training School.

He has served in the following capacities:

Charter Member of the Los Angeles
Psychoanalytic Society

Instructor

Training Analyst

Training-Analyst Trustee

Director of the Institute 1947-57

Dean of the Training School 1947-53

In recognition of Dr. Lewy's contributions to the Institute and psychoanalysis, he was elected Dean Emeritus of the Training School.

Mrs. Frances Deri has retired from the Education Committee and as a Training Analyst. She was one of the founders of the Los Angeles Psychoanalytic Society and the Los Angeles Institute for Psychoanalysis.

She has been a pioneer of psychoanalysis on the West Coast and played a most important part in the development of psychoanalysis. Mrs. Deri has probably personally influenced more psychoanalysts in Los Angeles than any other training analyst.

In recognition of her life-long devotion to psychoanalysis, the Education Committee elected her Training-Analyst Emeritus on April 7, 1966.

I will personally miss the active participation of Mrs. Frances Deri and Dr. Ernst Lewy, and I wish to thank them for all their past help.

On January 13, 1966, Dr. Richard Evans was elected Training-Analyst Trustee to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Ernst Lewy.

After Dr. Henry Lihn was elected Dean of the Training School he resigned as Director of the Clinic. Dr. Arthur Ourieff was then appointed Director of the Clinic for the year 1965-66. Dr. Roberta Crutcher resigned as Chairman of the Library Committee, and Dr. Ruth Barnard was appointed to succeed her.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Henry Lihn, M. D.
Chairman, Education Committee

A detailed report of the activities of the Education Committee will be sent to you by Dr. Henry Lihn, but I would like to mention a number of items of interest.

The following were re-appointed Training Analysts:

Ivan McGuire, M. D.	1966-71
Ernst Lewy, M. D.	1966-67

The following changes were made in the Education-Committee procedures:

The quorum of the Education Committee was reduced to five members.

All minutes of the Education Committee are mailed to the assistant instructors and instructors.

The Education Committee meetings are now open to the senior faculty.

The Education Committee voted to change the procedure in the selection of Training-Analysts. The following proposals were approved:

Any member of the Institute who desires to become a training analyst may apply and become one upon meeting the following requirements:

1. Graduated at least five years.
2. Teaching experience is preferable but not required.
3. Member of The American Psychoanalytic Association.
4. Applicant to be required to present a case currently undergoing analysis by him before a committee comprised of two to four training analysts plus a like number of faculty members selected by the Chairman of the Education Committee and the Faculty Committee. Within three months this committee will make its report and recommendations to the Education Committee.

5. Ratification would be by a 2/3 majority of training analysts eligible to vote and by a 2/3 majority of the full instructors, by mail ballot, mailed simultaneously to training analysts and senior instructors.
6. The original appointment is for five years and re-election every five years would be by a majority vote of training analysts and a majority of the full instructors.
7. After the Education Committee arrives at an intention to appoint as a training analyst someone who does not meet all the above-listed requirements, then the Education Committee must present this application to the Board on Professional Standards for its approval.

The above cannot go into effect until the Board of Trustees makes the necessary changes in the By-Laws of its Constitution.

The present By-Laws read, "Training analysts shall be elected by three-fourths vote of the total membership of the Committee (Education), for initial three-year terms, then successive re-elective five-year terms."

PSYCHOANALYTIC CLINIC

Arthur Ourieff, M. D., Director
Jack Abrams, M. D., Assistant Director

The following members were most helpful in processing applications to the Psychoanalytic Clinic:

Morris Beckwitt, M.D.	Albert Kandelin, M.D.
Marvin H. Berenson, M.D.	Ganevieve May, M.D.
Seymour Bird, M.D.	Gerald A. Nemeth, M.D.
Gottfried Bloch, M.D.	Ralph M. Obler, M.D.
Milton Bronstein, M.D.	Kenneth Rubin, M.D.
Roberta Crutcher, M.D.	Morton Shane, M.D.
Richard Edelman, M.D.	T. L. Schoenberger, M.D.
Edward Feldman, M.D.	Donald G. Siegel, M.D.
James Grotstein, M.D.	Robert J. Stoller, M.D.
Joshua Hoffis, M.D.	Helen Tausend, M.D.
Sidney Z. Hulbert, M.D.	Robert Zaitlin, M.D.

The past year has been a trial period for the new policy that candidates are no longer required to take a Clinic case into treatment. Treating a Clinic case is now completely on a voluntary basis.

Dr. Ourieff has indicated that the one-year trial period has been too short to make a proper evaluation of the new procedure, but he did stress two points:

1. That patients accepted by the Clinic who could pay very low fees suffered because they were not quickly taken into treatment.

2. That candidates try to get patients privately rather than through the Clinic. The probable reasons for this are remunerative and, also, that the candidates feel that if they accept a Clinic case, it indicates that they are not successful in their practices.

In order to correct these tendencies, Dr. Ourieff has presented a financial plan which is now being studied by the Clinic and Finance Committee.

The trial period for the new procedure of treating Clinic cases has been extended for another year.

EXTENSION DIVISION

Hilda S. Rollman-Branch, M. D., Director

For the past six years, three under the direction of Dr. Maurice Walsh and the last three by Dr. Hilda Rollman-Branch, the Extension Division has had a phenomenal growth.

The general public and the professional community of Los Angeles which includes social workers, probation officers, psychiatrists, psychiatric residents, teachers, school psychologists, educators, attorneys, and judges, have benefited from the programs of the Extension Division.

The demands of the above groups to increase the number of lectures indicates the quality of our efforts and the acceptance of our programs.

The following three pages is a complete schedule for the Extension Division during the past year.

RESEARCH DIVISION

Alfred Goldberg, M. D., Director

Research Advisory Committee

Gerald Aronson, M. D.
David Brunswick, Ph. D.

Maimon Leavitt, M. D.
Milton Wexler, Ph. D.

During this year there have been two Research Seminars:

June 12, 1965:	"Rocking, Snout-Banging, and Head-Banging" Heiman Van Dam, M. D.
December 14, 1965:	"The First-Born Child, Male; Vicissitudes of Preoedipal Problems" Hilda S. Rollman-Branch, M. D.

Our Research Division has had difficulty in accomplishing what Dr. Goldberg and I have hoped for it.

Our requests to the U. S. Public Health Service for a Research Grant have not been approved, but we still have hope that someday the Institute will be able to conduct a research program of its own.

In the meantime, the Research Committee is considering starting a new Research Seminar to center around critical and detailed discussion of psychoanalytic research work and literature.

Fenichel-Simmel Memorial Lecture

Ralph R. Greenson, M. D.
Chairman

On March 29, 1966, the first Fenichel-Simmel Memorial Lecture was given by Edith Jacobson, M. D.

The purpose of this series is twofold; first, to pay honor to both Otto Fenichel, M. D., and Ernst Simmel, M. D., who made such important contributions to psychoanalysis and the development of psychoanalysis on the West Coast and particularly in Los Angeles. Second, to present to psychoanalysts and the community of Los Angeles an analyst who represents psychoanalysis in the tradition of both Drs. Fenichel and Simmel.

I feel both of these objectives were accomplished by the following program.

Opening Remarks: Jack A. Vatz, M. D.

Introduction: Ralph R. Greenson, M. D.

Subject: THE PARANOID BETRAYAL CONFLICT

Speaker: Edith Jacobson, M. D.

Closing Remarks: Emanuel Windholz, M. D.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Seymour Pastron, M. D. Chairman

I am happy to report that our financial picture is a good one. The financial statement and budget are on file.

GRANTS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

During the past year we have received the following grants:

The U. S. Public Health Service Grant of $10,000 to the Training School.

The National Institute of Mental Health Grant of $5,616 to the Extension Division.

Dr. Arthur Ourieff donated $150 to the Clinic.

Dr. Jack Abrams donated $150 to the Clinic.

The Peggy Mahon estate has been settled and we have received $308,000.

We are most appreciative to our friends for their generosity and efforts on our behalf.

I wish to thank the Society Auxiliary for its invaluable help in organizing the Christmas Party and the Jacobson Reception.

*****

NEW MEMBERS

The following members were elected to membership in the Los Angeles Institute during the past year:

Milton Bronstein, M. D.	Joshua A. Hoffs, M. D.
Justin Call, M. D.	Mark Orfirer, M. D.
Richard Edelman, M. D.	Phillip Pennington, M. D.

Morton Shane, M. D.

*****

I would like to call to your attention a few items of special interest about honors received by some of our members.

Dr. Leo Rangell: President of The American Psycho-analytic Association for the second time

Dr. Ruth Barnard: President-Elect of The Southern California Psychiatric Society

Three new non-analyst trustees were elected last year: Mr. John T. Pigott, Jr., Mr. Marvin Freeman, and Mr. Louis Licht. They joined Mr. Walter Hilborn and Dr. Josephus Reynolds; I know from my personal experience of the past sixteen years as a trustee of the Institute that this is the most helpful group of non-analyst trustees we have ever had.

I thank them for their invaluable assistance.

I want to thank our Executive Secretary, Jean Kameon; the members of all committees; and the Directors of each Division for the fine support they have given me during my terms of office.

Our most pressing problem at the present time is the reorganization of the Institute and Society. The Joint Committee has been working diligently towards a solution.

I must admit for a long while I had some misgivings about the attitude and the effectiveness of the Committee. It began to look as if they were falling into the same behaviour pattern and making the same mistakes they were trying to correct. This was probably due to their reaction to the unrest that has been present in the Society and Institute.

The original plan presented by the Committee had some fine recommendations. My main criticism was twofold: first, the looseness and complexity of the organization of the combined Society and Institute; second, I feel that the Training School must have complete autonomy in order to execute its functions.

From my recent conversations with individual members of the Joint Committee, I have the impression that the Committee has stopped over-reacting to the problems and is now functioning on a more solid foundation and workable basis.

I am told that they are just about ready to present to the Society and Institute their recommendations. This will be done in detail with their suggested Constitution and By-Laws changes.

The Committee has worked hard and conscientiously; I wish to thank them for undertaking this thankless task.

The months to follow will be difficult ones for us, but let us try to remember that we all probably react with such emotion because the welfare of the Institute, Society, and Training School mean so much to each of us.

Let us discuss the issues on their merits and leave out our personal differences. These issues are too important to allow other factors to interfere with our judgment and final decisions. If we don't do this, it will not make any difference what organizational changes we make. Nothing will help us.

I once warned you this type of behavior could lead to the destruction of our Society and Institute and the part we play in psychoanalysis. This must not happen.

Try to remember these problems are not individual to Los Angeles. All Institutes and Societies are facing and struggling with the same situation.

Solutions to problems such as we face are not easily come by nor are they always perfect in the over-all accomplishment. We must be able to submerge our individual desires and accept an answer that will provide the greatest good for the future of our Institute, Society, and psychoanalysis.
