

9 Sept 1962

Dear Miriam

Thanks for the warning.
I certainly don't want to do a lot, and I shall be entirely orientated to my few actual contributions. After all, one has to justify oneself, which isn't done by just smiling. (Also I have had 2½ coronary thromboses!)

Actually I want to see you and Ben, and somehow or other this must be arranged at a time when both you & I can meet without hurry.

Use this letter if you like. I simply can't afford to get exhausted at long parties, at risk of being rude.
Every good wish
you

DWW