ABOUT DAVID BRUNSWICK

Historian's delight because he is an historical figure.

Historian's bane because he doesn't much talk about himself.

But I have records which tell me about him, interesting facts of a fascinating career, if you could only get him to open up. I can tell you a few things about him which can give you an idea:

HARVARD COLLEGE 1914-1918

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL 1918-1919

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY 1920-1923, A.B.1921, Ph.D.1924 in Psychology, subordinates in Physiology and Psychiatry.

TEACHING AND RESEARCH Dept.of Physiology, Harvard Medical School up to 1927, with titles of Teaching Fellow, Instructor, Research Fellow, and National Research Fellow in the Biological Sciences.

1927-1930 Analysis in Vienna with a leading analyst, with selected reading in psychoanalytic literature.

1931. Commenced psychoanalytic practice in Los Angeles. With further supervised work with Simmel, Deri. Attended seminars of Simmel Deri and Fenichel.

1933 Elected associate member, Chicago Psa.Soc.

1942 Transfer to Regular membership S F.Psa.Soc.
