LONDON, N. W. 3.

HAMPSTEAD 2002.

Dear Dr. Levy and Dr. Tidd, 10. 12. 1955.

I was charmed and touched by the way in which the Los Angeles Institute and Society remembered my birthday. Please, tell your members that I am very grateful and that I am more than pleased to know that they have such good and friendly feelings for me. I shall treasure the copy of Mrs. Deri's paper in its beautiful cover and I am writing to her directly to thank her for doing my birthday thinking for me. She has caught completely the spirit in which one finds oneself on such an occasion, and has given it deeper meaning in a truly analytic sense.

With my best regards and thanks,
yours sincerely

Anna Freud
