Dear Windy:

I am transmitting to you herewith copies of correspondence between Ives Hendrick and me, and of the correspondence between Dr. Hendrick and Dr. Noyes, which was the basis of my exchange with Dr. Hendrick.

We have felt that a similar attack might be made on all Institutes which have non-medical training analysts and/or lecturers on their staffs and we agreed to send these copies to someone in each Institute which may be open to such an attack.

With cordial regards,

Sincerely,
