My dear Doctor Jessner:

I have heard that it is possible you will come to Los Angeles as a training analyst. I have practiced psychiatry for the past eight years, and am certified in psychiatry by the American Board. My application for training in analysis is in the hands of the Los Angeles Institute and I have reason to believe that I will shortly be accepted.

I am writing in the hope that should you decide to come here, you would reserve hours for me. As you probably know, there is a great shortage of training analysts here, presenting a serious stumbling block to those like myself who are seeking training in analysis. Any reply will be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
Lewis J. Fielding
