Beverly Hills, California, U.S.A.

Dear Dr. Van der Heide,

I am grateful to you for your kind letter of December 4th. My wife and I intend to leave this country about Friday 28th September. I suppose this means that we could be in California and ready to meet your Society by Monday 1st October.

I agree to your suggestion for the two papers: a paper to the Society, and a lecture directed to the candidates. Will it be possible for you to arrange your dates in such a way that I may give these lectures and meet colleagues in Los Angeles and be free to give a lecture in San Francisco on 8th October? No doubt you will let me know whether your plans can meet what I seem to be able to offer.

I enclose a copy of a letter to Dr. Jawetz in which you will see that I suggest that you be in communication in regard to my visit and that you will let me know if you wish me to swop round. I am making plans, however, on the basis of arriving in Los Angeles roughly speaking Saturday 29th September or Sunday 30th.

Yours sincerely,

D.W. WINNICOTT.
