Dear Dr. Lewy:

As to recognition by the V.A., our arrangement with the old Institute was such that whether or not we gained recognition as a new Institute, we could continue under the old. Nevertheless, we are going to attempt our own recognition, although we have not attempted it up to this time because it is only within the last week or so that we have finally been accepted by the American. Whether this can be done is a question because there was a notice in the paper that no teaching organizations would be recognized by the V.A. after 1949. V.A. stops accepting new students in 1951 at any rate.

Since you have the burden of the other group because it has not been officially recognized as an Institute, I wonder whether your group can require the other group to meet proper teaching standards and thus foster good training?

The separation is complete in Philadelphia now and we are going our way comfortably and untroubled.

It was a pleasure to hear from you and I trust you will not hesitate to write me.

Sincerely yours,

G. Henry Katz
