analyze my reaction to the Green's impotence vs helping boy who regressed and became ~~terrible~~ + not ever analyzing his Results in Referral parents more abruptly than should have been followed by resentment, Submission + ~~disappointment~~ - Rebellion ~~with Drew~~ did not Ret after vacation - when This was experienced as withdrawal - glad not to have to see him anymore but I would like to have been the one to Refer him + then I could have supervised or gotten the credit + have the parents feel friendly rather than hostile - My heart came out in the way I reacted to psych development not knowing whether to call him dr. + being told PhD + that boy is going to see him a few x - then I did not want him to come & in order not to interfere in his Rel. to new dr - Mort - what was it that I reacted to - to parents not needing me - can't tolerate parental criticism - the parents is of being my child over - became equals or my parents - painful rejection - no longer omnipotent (I almost said impotent) - it hurts even while writing - how can I

Examine His Reaction -

Similar to Worthen criticizing my mess + suggesting that I put in waste paper basket, as magazines - which I did because she was right - yet I felt Resentful + pained - feel good when pt swallows interpretation + admires it -

I want to get away / Rem it + objectify it - And I over analyze how I reacted to parental criticism - it made me small in eyes of younger sibs + I would lose my authority over them - I can't bear L's criticism ever - I always react to it and have to talk myself into smoothing it over - last night about water - yelled because Juanta using tapwater + I had told him that I had explained to her to use bottle - but I had not even thought about the water for cooking vegetables - of course he loves to jump on me - he jumped on me about the invitations - I now feel like crying - he always wanted family separate but I thought that he had changed because of several remarks - like have just one party - too much for a weekday night and let's just have one - but he maintains he never changed his mind I wanted a brunch for the family + Toronto + intimate friends on Sunday ~~th~~ - then he came with the idea of Bel Air brunch for friends on following weekend - I did not really want two affairs - too much + then found out that Lisa has Leo Baech weekend - then Larry rejected Bel Air affair as too pretentious - tho I had been thinking about making a this was our life sort of a thing - calling in different people to do a little something - but Larry & Rejected it which hurt me but not excessively, Then he came up with idea of music - which appealed to me moderately but who then evolved into Recorders + harpichord which Really put me on + I started taking pleasure in brunche + music - spend Sunday trying to figure out how to wood it print zero - already had Robert ne set of ^{25 am} wedding invitations because ? did not think we should put them under pressure for gifts + I had planned to write no gifts but skip it or whatever I am so sick of the whole thing - I hate it now too many people + R maybe was right about having family separate - I wanted this from the beginning but just can't manage 2 affairs + ~~do the~~ I am nauseated - ~~should have~~ ~~had it~~ I don't know anymore - but this is no good - just will have to do the best we can - but with that many people I can't enjoy anyone - it should be for us but it is not -
