

PSYCHOANALYTIC STUDY GROUP OF LOS ANGELES

To Members and Guests of the Psychoanalytic Study Group:

The Executive Council of the Study Group has in the last few months planned and initiated several new activities. These have been announced at one or more meetings. However, since not all of the members and guests have been present at the meetings, it is considered advisable to inform you by letter about these activities.

A Literature Seminar (reports and discussions of important psychoanalytic literature, past and present) has already met four times. It will meet once a month, usually on a Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The next meeting will be Thursday, May 27th at 8 P.M.

An Education Seminar (psychoanalytic discussion of school problems) has had two meetings. It will meet once a month, on a Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. It is open to members and guests who have special interest in the field of education. Members of the staffs of several schools of the vicinity will present for psychoanalytic discussion problems met in their work, and members of the Study Group will from time to time report discussions of educational problems in the psychoanalytic literature. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, June 5th, promptly at 7:30 P.M.

Finally, Dr. Simmel has offered to give a series of about six Introductory Lectures on Psychoanalytic Fundamentals. These will be given twice monthly on Saturday afternoons, from 5:30 to 6:15, including the day of the Education Seminar. These lectures are intended for guests and members whose knowledge about psychoanalysis is not adequate to the discussions in Group meetings and seminars, and for workers in related fields who may wish to get an introductory knowledge of the subject. Some understanding of the subject matter contained in these lectures should really be considered obligatory for those attending the Education Seminar or Literature Seminar. The first of these lectures will be given on Saturday, June 5th, at 5:30 P.M. sharp.

All lectures and seminars are held at 901 South Hudson Avenue. There are no fees in connection with these activities; members or guests who are interested in the seminars or lectures may apply to Dr. David Brunswick or Mrs. M. Libbin.
